

Anesthesiologist vs. Restaurant Manager

vs.

By: Joey Papermaker

What are they?

Anesthesiologist

- Anesthesiologists give patients medicine to make surgery while caring for the patient and keeping them as comfortable as possible.

Restaurant Manager

- Restaurant Managers make sure that their restaurants are running smoothly, while also working with people and building a strong clientele.

[Working Conditions]

Anesthesiologist

- Work indoors:
Hospital, Clinic
- Remain on feet for most of the day
- Responsible for health
of patients

Restaurant Manager

- Work indoors:
Restaurant, Office
- Work with people,
building clientele
- Responsible for overall happiness of customers and employees

[Hours Worked]

Anesthesiologist

- Any Shift, nights, weekends, on call
- Work with set schedule
- Usually more than 40 hours/ week

Restaurant Manager

- Work days, nights, weekends
- Generally work with set schedule
- More than 50 hours/ week (especially when busiest)

[Average Salaries $]

Anesthesiologist

- Washington:
Starting Average Top
$120,350 $189,865 $334,892
- National:
Starting Average Top
$114,249 $174,240 $321,690

Restaurant Manager

- Washington:
Starting Average Top
$49,668 $55,740 $86,856
- National:
Starting Average Top
$32,700 $41,340 $52,812

[Education]

Anesthesiologist

- 8 years in College
- Medical degree
- Fellowship programs

Restaurant Manager

- 4 years College helpful
- Management degree
- Work experience

[Schooling Costs]

Anesthesiologist

4 years undergraduate:
UW: $5,988 (tuition) x 4 =
$23,952

4 years medical:
UW: $12,447 (tuition) x 4 =
$49,788

$73,740

Restaurant Manager

4 years undergraduate:
UW: $5,988 (tuition) x 4 =

$23,952

[Personal Qualifications]

Anesthesiologist

- Handle blood, needles without fainting
- Think on your feet
- Be kind, respectful

Restaurant Manager

- Handle great deals of stress
- Be patient, take deep a breath
- Listen to people, consider what they have to say

[Places of Employment]

Anesthesiologist

- Hospitals
- Clinics
- Pain treatment centers

Restaurant Manager

- Upscale restaurants
- Hotel restaurants
- Diners
- Cafes

[Employment Outlook]

Anesthesiologist

- 2004-2014:
 - 18.82% increase
 - 83 new jobs

Restaurant Manager

- 2004-2014:
 - 17.6% increase
 - 80 new jobs

[Advancement Within]

Anesthesiologist

- Anesthetics Resident
 - $40 - $45,000 per year
- Certified Anesthesiologist
 - $150,000 + per year
- Senior Staff Anesthesiologist
 - $200,000 + per year

Restaurant Manager

- Waiter
 - $15 - $45,000 per year
- Assistant Manager
 - $25 - $45,000 per year
- General Manager
 - $40 - $70,000 per year
- Restaurant Owner
 - $50 - $100,000 per year

[Conclusion]

Restaurant Manager

- Pros:
 - Like serving/making food
 - Like fast paced situations
 - Like to be in charge
 - Not as much schooling
- Cons:
 - Wages aren't as high
 - Long hours

Anesthesiologist

- Pros:
 - Exceptional pay
 - Help People
- Cons:
 - Don't really like blood
 - Too much school

[And the Winner is...]

Restaurant Manager