Instructions:

You will create a brochure promoting the individual you are assigned. The brochure will consist of one outside panel and three inside panels:

- Front Panel: Cover page with title and picture
 1. Description of person/background
 2. Description of the important idea, discovery, or contribution to science/thought that the person made.
 3. Explanation of the person's importance to history (i.e.: what did their ideas lead to as far as new technologies, human behaviors, etc.)
 4. If necessary, a defense of his/her contribution that answers his/her critics. The idea is to "promote".

Each inside panel should have the following:

- A heading
- An illustration of some kind
- Writing to communicate the appropriate information
